

- Foreword p. xv
- Preface p. xvii
- Acknowledgments p. xxiii
- Introduction p. xxv
- Part 1 Coding for B2B Applications p. 1
- Chapter 1 Web-Based Applications p. 3
  - 1.1 Web Sites That Are Files p. 4
  - 1.2 Web Sites That Are Programs p. 6
  - 1.3 Web Sites That Are Applications p. 7
    - 1.3.1 Don't Make Your Clients Fat p. 8
    - 1.3.2 Don't Use Your Backend for Logic p. 8
    - 1.3.3 The Sweet Spot Is in the Middle p. 8
  - 1.4 Building Applications Using the .NET Framework p. 10
    - 1.4.1 The .NET Framework Class Library p. 12
    - 1.4.2 .NET Framework SDK Samples p. 16
  - Summary p. 17
- Chapter 2 Implementing Security in B2B Applications p. 19
  - 2.1 Security, a Primary Role of B2B Web Sites p. 19
    - 2.1.1 A Real-World Example of a Fundamental B2B Design Pattern p. 20
  - 2.2 Mechanisms for Controlling Access to Data and Applications p. 25
    - 2.2.1 Authentication p. 25
    - 2.2.2 Authorization p. 25
    - 2.2.3 Options for Implementing Authentication and Authorization p. 26
  - 2.3 Implementing SQL-Based Authentication and Authorization p. 29
  - Summary p. 38
- Chapter 3 ASP.NET Web Forms and Authentication p. 39
  - 3.1 Authentication in ASP.NET Web Applications p. 39
    - 3.1.1 What You Can Do with a Secure Web Site p. 40
    - 3.1.2 Building the ManufacturerA Web Site p. 41
  - Summary p. 54
- Chapter 4 ASP.NET Web Forms and Database Access p. 55
  - 4.1 Using a Relational Database Server for ASP.NET Security p. 55
    - 4.1.1 Placing Database Connection Information in the Web.config File p. 55
    - 4.1.2 Logging In Using Valid User IDs in the Database p. 57
    - 4.1.3 Showing the Right Information to the Right People p. 62
  - Summary p. 75
- Chapter 5 ASP.NET and Database-Driven Content Access Control p. 77
  - 5.1 Documents p. 77
    - 5.1.1 Security for Publishing Documents p. 78
    - 5.1.2 Building an ASP.NET Page that Contains Hyperlinks to Documents p. 79
    - 5.1.3 Authorization for Documents p. 81
    - 5.1.4 Preventing Security Bypass p. 86
    - 5.1.5 Showing Confidential Hyperlinks p. 87
    - 5.1.6 Uploading Documents p. 90

- 5.1.7 Building a Search Page p. 92
- Summary p. 92
- Chapter 6 XML Web services and BizTalk p. 93
- 6.1 Real World B2B Commerce p. 93
- 6.1.1 XML Web services p. 94
- 6.1.2 Building and Using XML Web services in Visual Studio.NET p. 95
- 6.1.3 XML Web services Security p. 99
- 6.1.4 Completing the Web service Code p. 100
- 6.1.5 Creating a Web service Client p. 101
- 6.1.6 Calling Web Methods Asynchronously p. 103
- 6.1.7 Building a Web service That Returns Files p. 106
- 6.2 Transactions in XML Web services p. 106
- 6.2.1 Scope of Transactions in XML Web services p. 107
- 6.2.2 Length of Transactions p. 108
- 6.2.3 Getting the Right Transactions p. 109
- 6.3 BizTalk Server p. 109
- Summary p. 113
- Chapter 7 Advanced B2B Applications with Webridge p. 115
- 7.1 Introduction to Webridge Extranet p. 116
- 7.1.1 B2B Infrastructure for Rapid Development Projects p. 116
- 7.1.2 Managing Context p. 117
- 7.1.3 A Portal for Integrating and Extending Internal Information Systems p. 117
- 7.1.4 How and Where to Use Webridge Extranet p. 118
- 7.2 B2B Infrastructure and Functionality p. 119
- 7.2.1 Infrastructure Code That Is Needed for B2B Applications p. 119
- 7.2.2 The Challenge of Building B2B Infrastructure Code p. 120
- 7.3 The Webridge Extranet Framework p. 121
- 7.3.1 Best of Suite p. 122
- 7.3.2 Webridge Extranet p. 123
- Summary p. 134
- Part 2 People, Politics, and B2B Projects p. 135
- Chapter 8 Security in an Insecure World p. 137
- 8.1 Security, a Primary Role of B2B Web Sites p. 138
- 8.2 Protecting the B2B Site p. 138
- 8.3 Insider Negligence p. 139
- 8.4 Deliberate Attacks from the Inside p. 140
- 8.5 Attacks from the Outside p. 141
- 8.6 Building a Hardened B2B Server p. 143
- 8.7 Secure Communications in Internet Commerce p. 144
- 8.7.1 Public Key Algorithms p. 146
- 8.7.2 Certification Authorities p. 147
- 8.7.3 Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) p. 148
- 8.7.4 Securing Information Inside an Organization p. 149
- Summary p. 151

- Chapter 9 B2B Development Traps p. 153
- 9.1 Complexity of B2B Development p. 153
- 9.1.1 B2B Technology p. 154
- 9.1.2 Diverse Technologies p. 155
- 9.1.3 Understanding the Technology p. 155
- 9.2 B2B Developers p. 156
- 9.2.1 Underestimating Difficulty p. 156
- 9.2.2 Lack of B2B Development Experience p. 157
- 9.2.3 Bad B2B Implementations p. 158
- 9.3 B2B Site Owners p. 159
- 9.3.1 Scope Creeps p. 160
- 9.3.2 Unfeasible Features p. 160
- 9.3.3 Inconsequential Features p. 160
- 9.3.4 Mutually Exclusive Features p. 161
- 9.3.5 Inexperienced Developers p. 161
- 9.3.6 More Than a Web Site p. 161
- 9.3.7 Features That Don't Add Value p. 162
- 9.3.8 Not Enough Attention to the Project p. 163
- 9.4 Project Management Problems p. 165
- Summary p. 165
- Chapter 10 The B2B Development Team p. 167
- 10.1 Forming the Team p. 168
- 10.1.1 Knowledge Is Power p. 168
- 10.1.2 Lead from the Front p. 169
- 10.1.3 The Polluted Environment p. 169
- 10.1.4 The A-Team p. 170
- 10.1.5 The Right Mix p. 172
- 10.1.6 One Project at a Time p. 172
- 10.1.7 What We Have Here Is a Failure to Communicate p. 173
- 10.1.8 The Geographically Dispersed Team p. 173
- 10.1.9 The Cohesive Team p. 173
- 10.1.10 Vision p. 174
- 10.1.11 Trailblazing p. 174
- 10.1.12 The Few, the Proud, the Team p. 176
- 10.1.13 Producing the Software p. 176
- 10.2 The Roles p. 177
- 10.2.1 Leadership Roles p. 177
- 10.2.2 Full-Time Roles p. 180
- 10.2.3 Part-Time Roles p. 182
- 10.3 B2B Disciplines and Skill Sets p. 183
- Summary p. 188
- Chapter 11 B2B Projects p. 189
- 11.1 Preach to the Choir p. 189
- 11.1.1 Vision Document p. 190

- 11.1.2 Understanding the Problems p. 190
- 11.1.3 Agreeing on the Problem Definition p. 191
- 11.1.4 Identifying the Stakeholders p. 191
- 11.1.5 Defining the Solution Boundary p. 191
- 11.1.6 Identifying the Constraints p. 192
- 11.1.7 Completing the Vision Document p. 194
- 11.2 Scope p. 194
- 11.2.1 Managing Complexity p. 194
- 11.2.2 "Up and Running" p. 196
- 11.2.3 Phased Approach p. 197
- 11.2.4 Experience p. 197
- 11.3 Requirements Management p. 197
- 11.3.1 Software Requirement Specification, or SRS p. 197
- 11.3.2 SRS Package Ownership p. 198
- 11.3.3 SRS Package Organization p. 199
- 11.3.4 SRS Package Content p. 199
- 11.4 Requirements Gathering p. 203
- 11.4.1 Kickoff p. 203
- 11.5 Analysis and Design p. 210
- 11.5.1 Creative Work p. 210
- 11.5.2 Technical Work p. 210
- 11.6 Project Plan and Schedule p. 212
- 11.7 Development p. 212
- 11.7.1 Development Infrastructure p. 212
- 11.7.2 Assignment of Tasks p. 213
- 11.8 Testing and Deployment p. 213
- 11.9 Acceptance and Sign-Off p. 214
- 11.10 Project Timeline p. 214
- Summary p. 217
- Part 3 Vision Documents for Typical B2B Applications p. 219
- Chapter 12 Extranets and B2B Web Sites p. 221
- 12.1 Introduction to Extranets and B2B Web Sites p. 221
- 12.1.1 The Purpose of B2B Applications p. 223
- 12.2 Overview of B2B Web Sites p. 224
- 12.2.1 A Broad Description of B2B Web Sites p. 224
- 12.2.2 A Precise Description of B2B Web Sites p. 224
- 12.2.3 B2B Web Site as a Platform for B2B Applications p. 228
- 12.3 Users of B2B Web Sites p. 230
- 12.3.1 User Profiles p. 230
- 12.4 Features of B2B Web Sites p. 236
- Summary p. 240
- Chapter 13 Selling-Chain Management p. 241
- 13.1 Introduction to Selling-Chain Management p. 241
- 13.1.1 The Purpose of Selling-Chain Management Applications p. 242

- 13.2 Overview of Selling-Chain Management p. 242
- 13.2.1 Purpose of Selling-Chain Management p. 243
- 13.2.2 Business Forces Driving the Need for Selling-Chain Management p. 246
- 13.2.3 Technology Forces Driving the Need for Selling-Chain Management p. 249
- 13.3 Users of Selling-Chain Applications p. 252
- 13.3.1 User Profiles p. 253
- 13.4 Features of Selling-Chain Applications p. 254
- Summary p. 258
- Chapter 14 Supply-Chain Management p. 259
- 14.1 Introduction to Supply-Chain Management p. 259
- 14.2 Overview of Supply-Chain Management p. 260
- 14.2.1 The Need for Supply-Chain Management p. 260
- 14.2.2 The Purpose of Supply-Chain Management Applications p. 263
- 14.2.3 Current Supply-Chain Management Practices p. 264
- 14.2.4 New Practices in Supply-Chain Management p. 269
- 14.3 Users of Supply-Chain Applications p. 275
- 14.3.1 CPFR Process Synchronizes Planning p. 276
- 14.3.2 User Profiles p. 277
- 14.4 Features of Supply-Chain Applications p. 278
- Summary p. 280
- Bibliography p. 281
- Index p. 283
