

Table of contents

- Acknowledgments (p. xiii)
- Introduction (p. xv)
- 1 Grand Central City (p. 1)
- Grand Central Redevelopment (p. 2)
- The Railroad Industry in New York City (p. 4)
- Grand Central Terminal (p. 10)
- Robert Young and the New York Central (p. 22)
- Other Proposals (p. 27)
- Emery Roth & Sons (p. 35)
- Erwin S. Wolfson, Builder/Real Estate Developer (p. 42)
- Zeckendorf In, Wolfson Out (p. 44)
- The Pei Project (p. 46)
- "Grand Central City" (p. 49)
- Gropius and Belluschi (p. 50)
- Ada Louise Huxtable, the Transformation of Park Avenue, and "Rothscrapers" (p. 51)
- Walter Gropius (p. 64)
- The Architects Collaborative (p. 69)
- Pietro Belluschi (p. 70)
- The Gropius/Belluschi/Roth Scheme (p. 77)
- The Grand Vision (p. 84)
- 2 The Pan Am Building (p. 85)
- Wolfson Financing (p. 86)
- The Challenge (p. 89)
- James Ruderman, Structural Engineer (p. 90)
- Steel Framework: The Ruderman Plan (p. 92)
- Gropius/Belluschi/Roth Collaboration: The Design Process (p. 94)
- Roth Office (p. 112)
- Construction of the Building (p. 114)
- Carl A. Morse, Diesel Construction Company, and Construction Management (p. 114)
- Construction Begins (p. 117)
- Complications (p. 119)
- Bowling Alleys: Haskell versus the Railroads (p. 120)
- Pan American Signs On (p. 128)
- The Art (p. 141)
- 3 The Clamor of Criticism (p. 155)
- The New School Debate, January 1960 (p. 160)
- Huxtable: "Marvel or Monster?" (p. 163)
- More Criticism (p. 166)
- The Defense (p. 188)
- Heliport Proposal (p. 196)
- Construction Continued (p. 199)
- Wolfson Dies (p. 210)

- Building Nears Completion (p. 210)
- Pan Am Opens (p. 212)
- 4 The Building's Impact (p. 215)
- Economic Success (p. 216)
- Continued Criticism (p. 218)
- Jack Cotton Dies (p. 248)
- Criticism Elsewhere (p. 248)
- Haskell and the Demise of Architectural Forum (p. 255)
- Fallout in the National Press (p. 259)
- Criticism Abroad (p. 263)
- 5 The Architects (p. 273)
- The Architects' Reputations: Emery Roth & Sons (p. 274)
- Belluschi (p. 276)
- Gropius (p. 279)
- 6 Aftermath (p. 309)
- Heliport (p. 310)
- Historic Preservation (p. 324)
- The Late 1960s (p. 341)
- Sale of the Building (p. 346)
- Lobby Remodeling (p. 351)
- Demise of Pan American World Airways: Flight 103 and Pan Am's Final Descent (p. 357)
- Pan Am Sign Change (p. 363)
- Pan Am Building: Landmark Status? (p. 368)
- 7 Conclusion (p. 369)
- Pan Am as Symbol (p. 370)
- Later Criticism (p. 370)
- Architectural Criticism, Critics, and Popular Perception (p. 384)
- The Pan Am Building: The Vision of Three Men (p. 385)
- The Significance of the Building (p. 386)
- Notes (p. 389)
- Works Cited (p. 431)
- Illustration Credits (p. 461)
- Index (p. 467)