

Table of Contents

- Preface p. xxv
- Chapter 1 The Worlds of 1300 p. 2
  - Contact and Isolation p. 4
  - Worlds Apart p. 7
  - The Four Major Cultural Areas of Eurasia p. 13
  - Borderlands near China p. 32
  - Mongol Conquests and Connections p. 34
  - Conclusion p. 39
  - Further Readings p. 41
- Chapter 2 Crises and Recovery in Eurasia, 1300s-1500s p. 42
  - Collapse and Integration p. 44
  - Islamic Dynasties p. 48
  - Ming China p. 59
  - Western Christendom p. 66
  - Conclusion p. 75
  - Further Readings p. 76
- Chapter 3 Contact, Commerce, and Colonization, 1450s-1600 p. 78
  - Revival of Trade p. 80
  - European Exploration and Expansion p. 86
  - The Atlantic World p. 93
  - The Transformation of Europe p. 106
  - Growth of Trade in Asia p. 110
  - Conclusion p. 116
  - Further Readings p. 117
- Chapter 4 Worlds Entangled, 1600-1750 p. 118
  - Increasing Economic Linkages p. 120
  - New Colonies in the Americas p. 124
  - The Slave Trade and Africa p. 131
  - Asia in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries p. 136
  - Transformations of Europe p. 148
  - Conclusion p. 159
  - Further Readings p. 160
- Chapter 5 Cultures of Splendor and Power, 1600-1780 p. 162
  - Trade and Culture p. 164
  - Culture in the Islamic World p. 165
  - Culture and Politics in East Asia p. 171
  - The Enlightenment in Europe p. 179
  - Hybrid Cultures in the Americas p. 186
  - Imperialism in Oceania p. 189
  - Conclusion p. 193
  - Further Readings p. 194
- Chapter 6 Reordering the World, 1750-1850 p. 196
  - Transformations in the Atlantic World p. 198
  - Political Reorderings p. 199

- Change and Trade in Africa p. 213
- Economic Reordering p. 216
- Persistence and Change in Eurasia p. 223
- Conclusion p. 235
- Further Readings p. 236
- Chapter 7 Alternative Visions of the Nineteenth Century p. 238
- Reactions to Social and Political Change p. 240
- Prophecy and Revitalization in the Islamic World and Africa p. 241
- Prophecy and Rebellion in China p. 246
- Utopians, Socialists, and Radicals in Europe p. 251
- Insurgencies Against Colonizing and Centralizing States p. 257
- Conclusion p. 268
- Further Readings p. 269
- Chapter 8 Nations and Empires, 1850-1914 p. 270
- Nation-Building and Expansion p. 272
- Expansion and Nation-Building in the Americas p. 273
- Consolidation of Nation-States in Europe p. 280
- Industry, Science, and Technology p. 284
- Imperialism p. 286
- Japan, Russia, and China p. 297
- Conclusion p. 305
- Further Readings p. 306
- Chapter 9 An Unsettled World, 1890-1914 p. 308
- Progress and Upheaval p. 310
- Discontent with Imperialism p. 311
- Worldwide Insecurities p. 317
- Cultural Modernism p. 329
- Rethinking Race and Reimagining Nations p. 333
- Conclusion p. 343
- Further Readings p. 344
- Chapter 10 Of Masses and Visions of the Modern, 1910-1939 p. 346
- Economic and Political Modernities p. 348
- The Great War p. 349
- Mass Culture p. 357
- Mass Production and Mass Consumption p. 358
- Mass Politics: Competing Visions of Becoming Modern p. 361
- Conclusion p. 382
- Further Readings p. 383
- Chapter 11 The Three-World Order, 1940-1975 p. 384
- Competing Blocs p. 386
- World War II and Its Aftermath p. 387
- The Beginning of the Cold War p. 392
- Decolonization p. 397
- Three Worlds p. 409
- Tensions in the Three-World Order p. 419
- Conclusion p. 422

- Further Readings p. 423
- Chapter 12 Globalization p. 424
- Global Integration p. 426
- Removing Obstacles to Globalization p. 427
- Unleashing Globalization p. 433
- Characteristics of the New Global Order p. 444
- Citizenship in the Global World p. 453
- Conclusion p. 461
- Further Readings p. 462
- Pronunciation Guide p. A1
- Credits p. A5
- Index p. A9