

- Introduction Mary C. Schlembach p. 1
- Merging Science/Technology Libraries: A Valuable Planning Option Barton Lessin p. 3
- Electronic Collections-Evolution and Strategies: Past, Present, and Future Carol A. Brach p. 17
- Providing a Digital Portal to a Print Collection: A Case Study for an Engineering Documents Collection Winnie S. Chan and Deborah Rhue p. 29
- Challenges for Engineering Libraries: Supporting Research and Teaching in a Cross-Disciplinary Environment Linda G. Ackerson p. 43
- Information-Seeking Behavior of Academic Meteorologists and the Role of Information Specialists Julie Hallmark p. 53
- Geology Librarianship: Current Trends and Challenges Lura E. Joseph p. 65
- Bridge Beyond the Walls: Two Outreach Models at the University of California, Santa Cruz Catherine Soehner and Wei Wei p. 87
- Current Implementation of the DOI in STM Publishing Cynthia L. Mader p. 97
- When Vendor Statistics Are Not Enough: Determining Use of Electronic Databases Amy S. Van Epps p. 119
- Capturing Patron Selections from an Engineering Library Public Terminal Menu: An Analysis of Results William H. Mischo and Mary C. Schlembach p. 127
- Looking for Numbers with Meaning: Using Server Logs to Generate Web Site Usage Statistics at the University of Illinois Chemistry Library Beth L. Tarr p. 139
- Challenges and Changes: A Review of Issues Surrounding the Digital Migration of Government Information Robert Slater p. 153
- Index p. 163