

Table of Contents

- Preface p. xv
- Maps: p. xvii
- Map of Pakistan
- Map of Afghanistan
- Map of South Asia
- Map of Asia
- List of Acronyms p. xxi
- Introduction p. 1
- Chapter 1 The Land, People, and Economy of Afghanistan: A Historical Appraisal p. 9
 - Historical Background of Afghanistan p. 10
 - Anglo-Russian Rivalry and the Great Game in Asia
 - The Demarcation of Afghanistan's Boundaries
 - Delineation of the Durand Line
 - Landscape p. 17
 - The Central Highlands
 - The Northern Plains
 - The Southern Plateau
 - The People and Economy of Afghanistan p. 19
 - Ethnic composition of Afghanistan
 - The Origin of the Pashtuns
 - The Economy of Afghanistan
 - Conclusion p. 26
- Chapter 2 Afghanistan's Internal Politics since the Twentieth Century p. 30
 - The Power Structure of Afghanistan, 1880-1901
 - Afghanistan on the Road to Modernization, 1901-1929
 - The Prudent Policies of 1929-1953
 - The Onset of the Soviet Role in Afghanistan, 1954-1963
 - The Formation of the People's Democratic Party of Afghanistan, 1963-1973
 - The Coup d'état of 1973
 - The Saur Revolution of 1978 and Afghanistan under the Communist Regime
 - The Soviet Invasion: The Underlying Imperatives p. 46
 - A Defence Mechanism
 - Eliminating Nationalist Amin
 - A Matter of Prestige
 - Deterring Islamic Revival in Central Asia through Afghanistan
 - The Great Game
 - Soviet Fear of Encirclement
 - The Regional Crisis of 1979
 - Control of Afghanistan's Natural Resources
 - Geopolitics: A Sub-field of Geography p. 55
 - South Asia: A Unified Identity
 - Pakistan's Geopolitical Situation, 1947-1971
 - Pakistan in a Changed Geopolitical Environment, 1972-1979
 - Conclusion p. 64

- Chapter 3 Pakistan as a Front Line State During the Afghan-Soviet War p. 70
- General Zia's Political Beliefs p. 72
- General Zia
- The Coup d'état of 5 July 1977: Political Imperative or Personal Ambition?
- The Process of Bhutto's Accountability, 1977-1979
- Legitimizing the Military Government
- Pakistan and the Non-Aligned Movement p. 78
- The Foundation of the Non-Aligned Movement
- Pakistan, an Aligned State from 1954-1979
- Pakistan's Quest to Join the Non-Aligned Movement
- Pakistan as a Non-Aligned Country during The Afghan-Soviet War
- The Security Threat Posed by the Afghan War p. 85
- Security Threat for the West in the Persian Gulf and the Indian Ocean
- The Security Threat to Pakistan's Western Border
- Renewed US Aid to Pakistan p. 90
- US-Pakistan Relations and Aid from 1947-1965
- The US Arms Embargo from 1965-1971
- The Ebb and Flow of US Aid to Pakistan, 1972-1980
- Renewed US Aid to Pakistan, 1981-1989
- Pakistan: A Conduit for Arms p. 99
- The Rise of The Islamic Political Movement in Afghanistan
- Tensions between Islamabad and Kabul, 1973-1975
- Bhutto's Forward Policy in Afghanistan, 1975-1977
- Pakistan's Support of Afghan Insurgents
- The Soviet Invasion of Afghanistan and Arming the Mujahideen via Pakistan
- Geneva Settlement and the Soviet Withdrawal from Afghanistan on 15 February 1989
- Conclusion p. 113
- Chapter 4 Political and Economic Impact of The Afghan-Soviet War on Pakistan p. 120
- Political Impact p. 120
- Legitimacy to Military Rule in Pakistan
- Ignoring Pakistan's Nuclear Programme and Human Rights Violations
- Military Penetration into the Administration
- Stagnation of Political Activity
- Strengthening of Religious Parties and Extremist Elements p. 134
- General Zia's Islamic Ideology supported by the US
- The ISI and CIA involve Islamic Parties in The Afghan War Strategy
- Mushrooming of Madrasahs and Extremist Elements
- Pakistan's Economic Dilemma p. 141
- The Economic Situation of Pakistan in 1979 1989
- The Economic Burden of Millions of Afghan Refugees p. 147
- A Burden on Grazing Grounds and Water Resources
- Ecological Problem
- Purchasing Immovable Property
- Afghan Control of the Transportation Sector
- Cheap Afghan Labour and Local Unemployment
- International Financial Assistance for Afghan Refugees in Pakistan p. 150

- Money Laundering p. 152
- Money Laundering in Pakistan
- The Negative Impact of Money Laundering on Economic Development
- Conclusion p. 155
- Chapter 5 Social Impact of the Afghan-Soviet War on Pakistan p. 163
- Islamic Component Highlighted in Pakistan's Society
- The Hudood Ordinance
- Federal Shariat Courts
- Curriculum Designed under Islamization
- State-Controlled Media p. 171
- Press Advice System
- Television and Radio
- The Film Industry
- Sectarian Strife p. 177
- Inter-Sectarian Harmony in Pakistan, 1947-1974
- The Anti-Ahmadi Movement, 1974
- Sectarian Violence: An Outcome of General Zia's Islamization Policy?
- Sectarian Conflict in Pakistan: Spillovers of the Iranian Revolution and Anti-Soviet Afghan Jihad
- Ethnic Violence p. 190
- Pakistan's Ethnic Composition after Independence
- Sindh: An Ethnically Imbalanced Province
- Punjabi-Muhajir Military Bureaucratic Oligarchy
- The Muhajir Identity 1971-1977
- Sindh under the Military Regime, 1977-1983
- The Afghan-Soviet War Transforms the Military Bureaucratic Oligarchy
- 'Ethnic Card' used in Sindh to Extend Military Rule
- Ethnic Riots in Sindh from 1985 Onwards
- Conclusion p. 210
- Chapter 6 The Impact of the Soviet Intervention on Afghanistan p. 218
- Kabul under Karmal
- Desertion Trends in the Afghan Army
- Afghanistan's Economic Condition during Soviet Intervention
- Gorbachev's Afghan Policy
- Najibullah's National Reconciliation Policy
- The UN's Role in the Afghan Crisis
- Afghanistan after Soviet Withdrawal p. 232
- Conclusion p. 235
- Chapter 7 The Legacies of The Afghan-Soviet War in Pakistan p. 238
- Heroin Culture p. 239
- Opium Cultivation in Pakistan, 1947-1979
- How Heroin Culture Began in Pakistan
- Heroin's Penetration of Pakistani Society
- Heroin Addicts in Pakistan: A Tragic Legacy of the Afghan-Soviet War
- Gunrunning in Pakistan p. 248
- Pakistan: A Conduit of Afghan Arms during the Afghan-Soviet War

- Illicit Weapons Trade Equips Local Miscreants
- Increase in the Crime Rate
- Taliban p. 251
- The Relationship between Pakistan and the Taliban
- The Emergence of the Taliban in Afghanistan
- Afghanistan under the Taliban, 1994-2001
- Pakistan's Support to the Taliban
- Sanctuary to Osama bin Laden
- Pakistan: A Front Line State Once Again p. 260
- Ban on Five Religious Outfits
- Counterterrorism Cell
- Pakistan's Nuclear Hero Detained
- Operations in South and North Waziristan
- The Red Mosque
- Drone Attacks
- Talibanization of Pakistani Society: A Legacy of the Afghan-Soviet War p. 274
- Enforcement of Shariah in Swat, February 2009
- Conclusion p. 278
- Conclusion p. 286
- Bibliography p. 297
- Index p. 303