

Table of Contents

- Preface
- Part I Language Policy in Education
- A Brief History and Assessment of Language Rights in the United States Terrence G. Wiley
- 10 India's Economic Restructuring with English: Benefits Versus Costs E. Annamalai
- Part V Language and Social Conflict
- Critical Issues in Language Policy in Education James W. Tollefson
- Part II Competing Agendas
- Righting Language Wrongs in a Plurilingual Context: Language Policy and Practice in Nicaragua's Caribbean Coast Region Jane Freeland
- Language Policy in a Time of Crisis and Transformation James W. Tollefson
- Multiple Actors and Arenas in Evolving Language Policies Mary McGroarty
- Positioning the Language Policy Arbiter: Governmentality and Footing in the School District of Philadelphia David Cassels Johnson
- The Japanisation of English Language Education: Promotion of the National Language within Foreign Language Policy Kayoko Hashimoto
- Part III Indigenous Languages in Postcolonial Education
- Language and Education in Kenya: Between the Colonial Legacy and the New Constitutional Order Alamin Mazrui
- Language-in-Education Policy and Planning in Africa's Monolingual Kingdoms of Lesotho and Swaziland Nkonko M. Kamwangamalu
- Part IV Language and Global Capitalism
- 12 The Critical Villager Revisited: Continuing Transformations of Language and Education in Solomon Islands David Welchman Gegeo and Karen Ann Watson-Gegeo
- Part VI Language Policy and Social Change
- 13 Language Planning and Cultural Continuance in Native America Teresa L. McCarty
- 14 New Functional Domains of Quechua and Aymara: Mass Media and Social Media Serafin M. Coronel-Molina
- 15 Language Policy and Democratic Pluralism James W. Tollefson
- List of contributors
- Author Index
- Subject index
- 11 Rwanda Switches to English: Conflict, Identity and Language-in-Education Policy Beth Lewis Samuelson