

Part One: Introductory Matters

1. The Qur'an - an ocean with jewels and valuables
2. The aims of the Qur'an and its valuables
3. An explanation of the six aims of the Qur'an
4. Divisions of sciences of the Qur'an
5. Sciences of ancients and moderns from the Qur'an
6. Explaining allegories about the Qur'an
7. The invisible world through the visible world
8. Connection between invisible world and visible worlds
9. Meaning of allegories to describe the Qur'an
10. The benefit of employing allegories in the Qur'an
11. Variance in the excellence of Qur'anic verses
12. Secrets of Surah al-Fatihah
13. Surah al-Fatihah - key to doors of Paradise
14. The Verse of the Throne
15. Surah al-Ikhlās - a third of the Qur'an
16. Surah Ya Sin - heart of the Qur'an
17. Merits of the Verse of the Throne and Surah al-Fatihah
18. The condition of the gnostics
19. Stringing the jewels and pearls of the Qur'an

Part Two: The Aims

1. The Jewels of the Qur'an
2. The Pearls of the Qur'an

Conclusion on the two classes of verses